Mr Barran Dodger
Unit 2/55 Archbold Road,
LONG JETTY NSW 2261

13 May 2026

Dear Mr Dodger

Your treating team at Central Coast Area Mental Health Service has asked the Mental Health Review Tribunal to make a Community Treatment Order for you.

What is a Community Treatment Order (CTO)?

A CTO is an official order that says you must take the treatment given to you by a community mental health team. The treating team will give you a copy of the proposed treatment plan before the hearing. This plan will provide the details of your treatment, how it will be implemented and what will be required of you. If an order is made at your hearing, this plan will be stamped as approved and given an expiry date by the Tribunal.

How does the Tribunal decide whether to make a Community Treatment Order?

The Tribunal will not make a CTO automatically. The hearing is held so the treating team can present reasons for their application and for you to provide your perspective. The Tribunal is an independent body and the panel members will hear both sides fairly before making a decision.

It is very important that you come to the hearing (either in person or by phone) and speak to the panel about whether you object to the order or have any comments about the treatment plan.

When and where is the Tribunal hearing?

Date: 3 June 2026

Time: 2:15 PM

Facility: Wyong Hospital (Group Rm 2 - Magistrate's Room)
Wyong Hospital Mental Health Unit, 664 Pacific Highway HAMLIN TERRACE

Attendance: In Person

Your case manager will be attending from Wyong Hospital (Group Rm 2 - Magistrate's Room). Please advise your case manager whether you will be attending the facility or participating via telephone.

How to get ready for the Tribunal hearing

Before the hearing, you should arrange to discuss the proposed treatment plan with your case manager and if desired, your family or carers.

If you choose not to attend, the hearing will usually proceed without you. It's very important for you to make every effort to attend. You are welcome to bring someone to the hearing to support you. The community mental health team should be able to put you into contact with a peer support worker.

It may be helpful to get some legal advice. For free independent advice you can contact LawAccess on 1300 888 529. In some cases you may be able to arrange for a solicitor to attend your hearing to advise and represent you. For advice on legal representation please call the Mental Health Advocacy Service on (02) 9745 4277 (reverse charges accepted).

If you choose not to attend the hearing you may still provide your perspective by writing a letter or by completing and submitting the attached Self-Report Form. The letter or the completed form should be submitted by email to MHRT-Civil@health.nsw.gov.au at least one day prior to your hearing.

How to get in touch with the Tribunal

If you have any questions about the Tribunal hearing, or if you can't attend on the day, please contact the Tribunal on (02) 9816 5955 or free call on 1800 815 511.

Yours sincerely

Alisa Kelley
