

Systemic Erasure: An Evidence-Based International Report on the State-Sanctioned Targeted Assassination of Barran Resonance Dodger

Part 1 - Introduction & Context

Barran Resonance Dodger is a gay, disabled Australian whistleblower, academic, journalist, and artist persecuted for exposing systemic corruption...

Part 2 - Evidence Architecture

This section outlines all forms of evidence used, including affidavits, official letters, NDIS documents...

Part 3 - Systemic Collusion and Participant Groups

Institutions involved include the NDIS, Legal Aid, police, media, AHRC, NACC, and politicians...

Part 4 - Modes of Erasure: The Tactics of State Assassination

The persecution included psychiatric gaslighting, housing sabotage, legal obstruction...

Part 5 - Legal & Human Rights Analysis

This case violates the Rome Statute, UNCRC, Australian law, and principles of natural justice...

Part 6 - Global Significance & Diplomatic Implications

Australia's global image as a rights-respecting democracy is undermined...

Part 7 - The Challenge: Impossible to Deny

This is an open call for rebuttal. All documents are factual, timestamped, and served...

Part 8 - Conclusion & Call to Action

This report is a formal record of injustice and a demand for immediate response...