At this late stage in my persecution member where Williams is institutionally complicit in the corruption and the Reg human rights abuses and the breaches of the UN human rights charter and disabled people although I appreciate him trying to get me legal Help to ask the NIS to do it when they are the enemy and also legally to do it when near the enemy and get Kathy guardian to do it when they're abusing me is really pissy in the wind. I'm a murder victim of Australian government. I can't report a crime to Police I'm a rejected whistleblower under the PID act and I'm an absolute scapegoat and he's refusal to accept my PID displays his institutional complicity in the corruption. It's the same kind of corruption that solicitor. My suicide has caused my homelessness and that my whole life is a political appraisal and now his decision to delay. Deny defer the Justice whilst I'm homeless and suffering is indicative that he is an aligning with my oppressors and a part of my persecution.

He didn't even have the decency to let my support person come into the room so was to have no other human being who could witness the disgraceful neglect gaslighting and abuse. It was dictated on me today.

I wish to say I've killed myself for much less abuse than this

Statement for Administrative Appeals Tribunal Meeting with the NDIS Regarding SILS Accommodation

Subject: Application for Supported Independent Living (SILS) Accommodation – A Personal Account of Systemic Challenges and Exile

Introduction

I am presenting this statement to highlight my ongoing struggle to secure Supported Independent Living (SILS) accommodation through the NDIS. This document outlines the systemic neglect, psychological harm, and active persecution I have faced in my pursuit of basic dignity, safety, and stability. It serves as a call for accountability and a plea for fair treatment under the framework of the NDIS.

My Circumstances

I am a whistleblower and a person with disabilities who has endured years of homelessness, systemic obstruction, and psychological distress. Despite professional recommendations advocating for SILS accommodations, I remain without secure housing or the necessary supports to rebuild my life. This failure to provide essential services has compounded the challenges of my disability and subjected me to further harm.

- Attempted Suicide and Systemic Neglect: In February 2021, I attempted suicide to escape the relentless targeting, lies, and systemic persecution inflicted upon me. I was revived from death, only to find myself in a position of continued vulnerability, forced to sleep in my car under the so-called "care" of the corrupt NDIS. Rather than receiving the support necessary to recover, I was subjected to further neglect and psychological torment.

- Living in Exile: I have been effectively exiled from my home city of Melbourne due to targeted actions taken at the behest of the NDIS Minister, Bill Shorten. Contracted individuals, masquerading as NDIS providers, intercepted me with the clear intent of intimidation. These actions were not random but coordinated efforts to prevent me from returning to my home and to maintain my state of homelessness and vulnerability.
- Threats to My Life and Safety: I have received credible warnings about plans to "extinguish" me, along with messages such as, "Bill Shorten not happy, run!" These threats are not theoretical — they are part of an ongoing campaign of persecution that has left me in constant fear for my safety.
- Collusion Across Systems: Every police officer, lawyer, politician, public official, media outlet, and even my own family and friends seem to align with my perpetrators. This alignment does not happen by accident; it takes a budget and coordinated effort to ensure everyone toes the party line of my oppression. This level of complicity is brutally corrupt, driven by a vested interest in silencing me as a whistleblower. The corruption embedded in these networks serves to protect the very individuals and systems I have sought to expose, ensuring that my voice is stifled and my suffering perpetuated.
- Under the Public Guardian's Control: As a person under the authority of the Public Guardian, I am supposed to receive protection and advocacy for my well-being. However, the Public Guardian has become an instrument of financial abuse, actively obstructing my ability to secure legal representation. This calculated restriction functions as an arm of the federal government's mandate to deconstruct my life, ensuring I remain impoverished, voiceless, and dependent. This abuse of power undermines my autonomy and perpetuates my suffering.
- Housing Instability: For years, I have been homeless, navigating a precarious existence with no fixed address. Despite multiple applications and documented needs, I have been repeatedly denied SILS accommodations.
- Lack of Mental Health Support: My attempts to access consistent psychological and psychiatric care have been met with systemic indifference. The mental health consequences of prolonged homelessness and isolation have been ignored, leaving me without the resources necessary for recovery.
- Systemic Neglect and Active Obstruction: My applications for NDIS-funded supports have not only been delayed but actively obstructed. Decisions that should prioritize my well-being appear influenced by external agendas, further marginalizing me.

Barriers to Justice

The structural barriers I face are not merely administrative; they reflect a broader systemic failure to uphold the rights of individuals like me. I have been:

- Excluded from Legal Recourse: Despite clear evidence of neglect and harm, I have found it impossible to hold the responsible entities accountable. Legal Aid and other avenues of support have not only failed to assist but have exacerbated my challenges by perpetuating cycles of dependency.
 - Targeted for Whistleblowing: My attempts to expose corruption within systems that are meant to serve the vulnerable have been met with retaliation. Rather than addressing the concerns I raised, the system has turned against me, perpetuating my exclusion and suffering.
 - Denied Basic Rights: Fundamental entitlements, such as housing, financial stability, and healthcare, have been systematically withheld. These are rights every Australian should expect, yet they remain inaccessible to me due to institutional failures.
 - Abused by the Public Guardian: Rather than serving as an advocate for my rights, the Public Guardian has played an active role in my marginalization. By denying me access to legal counsel and mismanaging my financial resources, they have effectively contributed to my impoverishment and perpetuated my inability to secure stability or justice.

Call for Action

I am not asking for preferential treatment but for the NDIS to fulfill its mandate of providing equitable and effective support for individuals with disabilities. I request:

1. Approval of SILS Accommodation: As recommended by professionals, I require immediate placement in a Supported Independent Living arrangement to provide stability and safety.
2. Access to Psychological and Medical Support: Consistent and appropriate mental health care must be prioritized to address the psychological toll of systemic neglect.
3. Transparency and Accountability: A review of the decisions and actions that have led to my current predicament is essential to ensure fairness and prevent similar injustices for others.
4. Protection from Retaliation: The tribunal must acknowledge the threats and persecution I have endured and take immediate steps to ensure my safety. This includes addressing the actions of the NDIS Minister, the Public Guardian, and their contracted agents who have contributed to my exile and endangerment.
5. Recognition of My Rights as a Whistleblower: The NDIS and associated agencies must acknowledge their obligation to protect, not punish, individuals who expose systemic corruption.

Conclusion

This statement is not only an account of my personal struggles but a reflection of broader systemic issues within the NDIS and related institutions. My journey is a testament to resilience in the face of adversity, but it also underscores the urgent need for meaningful reform. I urge the tribunal to consider my case with the fairness and compassion it warrants, ensuring that I receive the support and accommodations essential for my dignity and well-being.

Let this appeal be a step toward justice and accountability, not only for me but for all individuals who rely on the NDIS for support and stability.
